

San Diego CReDO Committee Overview

CReDO Mission

The San Diego Community Response to Overdoses (CReDO) is a San Diego County Substance Use and Overdose Prevention (SUOPT) subcommittee. The mission of CReDO is to unite the 3 Ps - public health, public safety, and prevention, to save lives by preventing drug overdoses.

Committee Agencies:

County of San Diego

Behavioral Health Services

Population Health Unit

Public Health Unit

Justice Involved Health

Epidemiology & Immunization Services Branch

Department of the Medical Examiner

Center for Community Research

SUOPT Facilitator

Evaluation

San Diego County Emergency Medical Services (EMS)

San Diego Fire-Rescue Department

EMS Division

Office of the US Attorney

San Diego Imperial Valley HIDTA

Drug Demand Reduction

CDC Foundation

Homeland Security Investigations,

DEA Overdose Response Team

San Diego County District Attorney's Office

Narcotics Division

San Diego County Sheriff's Department

Crime Laboratory

San Diego State University

Homeland Security Graduate Program

San Diego Law Enforcement Coordination Center

Drug Enforcement Administration

San Diego Police Department

